IN APPRECIATION TO

Mrs. VIRGINIA
GREENWOOD

who has done so much in producing this yearbook.

Mr. JACOB RETTERER

who has been so helpful to us during our four years of high school.

One of the greatest rewards of working on a Donian is to be able to dedicate your work to those who have given their time and effort for you. The people chosen by our class to receive this honor were always there to see that things were going right, whether it was at a dance, concessions or any class project.

We, the Seniors of 1959, feel a great indebtedness to you, the parents, and with deep sincerity we dedicate this Yearbook to you.

"Out of This World," a three-act comedy, was presented by the junior class on April 11, 1958, in the school auditorium. This play, directed by Mrs. Wilma Culbertson and Mrs. Doris Boger, concerned a slightly eccentric bachelor, Otis Kerby, and his niece, Linda, who lives with him. Linda is too full of ideas and most of her brain storms bring trouble in one form or another. But through a series of hilarious events, she brings everything under control again.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The play "The Magic Touch," a delightful, side-splitting three-act comedy, was presented by the seniors on November 14, 1958. Bobbette, a 'dyed-in-the-wool' tomboy, and her gang, the 'Dirty Dozen,' are a sloppy bunch of characters until a social highlight hits the scene. Bobbette, due to her Mother's pressure, is converted into a real lady, much to the astonishment of her gang.

CLASS HISTORY

Early in September, 1947, we began a new experience in life as we started our first year of school. There were fourteen boys and thirteen girls in the class, but six of these were slow second graders who later caught up with their class.

The next year Jerry Reamsnyder and John Herrod joined the class, while Pat Esterline moved to Marion.

Practically the same number were in the class for the next four years. Those who came and went during that time were: Carolyn Maddison, Beverly Harris, Elaine Wright, Louise Smith, Billy Bensley and Derry Bayles.

When the seventh grade began, we felt more grown up. We had to give up our recesses, but we managed to get along. We also got several new students. They were: Bonnie Handschug, Erma Clark, Phyllis Kile, Kathy Haldeman and Pat Esterline returned.

In the Ninth Grade we felt more on our own, since we had to change classes and select subjects. Derry Bayles returned to the class from Marion.

During the next year, two of our students dropped out and Joan Mason moved to California in her Junior year. Bob Agnes joined us. This year was one of the wildest and most enjoyable we had ever had. What with money making ideas, the class play, the Scot, and the prom, it was a wonder we ever learned anything. The class had a good time, though. John Bengel left at the end of this year to go to Marion.

At last, the year we had been waiting for arrived. We were Seniors! It didn't feel any different to be seniors, but everyone was glad that it was our last year. Now there were only eighteen of us and Bob Agnes dropped out before the year was over, leaving only seventeen in the class.

Now that the year is over, we are both glad and sad that it has ended. We know that the best years of our lives so far, have been at school and that we may never all be together again, but we are looking forward to what the years of the future will bring to us.

Ronald Lyon

We, the Class of 1959, being not of sound mind and without memory of our bad deeds, hereby will our various worthless possessions and all the torture equipment thereunto belonging to us to the enfeebled intellects of our successors, to be held by them or thrown away as they wish.

ARTICLE I

We, the Class of '59, do hereby replace a pain in the neck, which has been hurting the faculty for the past four years, for a pain in their hearts at the thought of our leaving.

ARTICLE II

To our "beloved underclassmen," we leave the ability to never crack a book, take a test, and flunk it as well as our ability to argue and never accomplish anything at our class meetings.

ARTICLE III

We, the Seniors, do hereby one by one now will his most prized possession or desire.

- I, Glenda Hipsher, will my driving ability, to anyone who has liability insurance.

- I, Caroline Foos, will my embarrassing moments to anyone who would want them.
- I, Barbara Brooks, will my right to be Football Queen to my sister, Betty.
- I, Rosemary Cochran, will my excellent clarinet playing to Carol Johnston.

- I, Terry Swisher, will my ability to get along with women to Larry Bigford.
- I, Darrel Fyffe, will my right to be in band and basketball at the same time to Leroy Lyon.
